Without making any definite statement regarding the condition in which Colonel Roosevelt is, the physician explained that laryngitis often follows a long residence in the tropics, and that in his opinion the hoarseness in this case is not due to the strain of speaking. Message from Widowed Queen

"GIVE TO ME A THOUGHT IN YOUR PRAYERS."

HEARTFELT THANKS EXPRESSED

For Tokens of Sympathy in This Overwhelming Sorrow and Anguish—Rulers Assembling for Obsequies.

London, May 10.—While the rulers and representatives of foreign nations are assembling here for the obsequies of the dead sovereign, the various necessary formalities incident to the sad event are being gradually completed.

The widowed queen has sent a touching personal message to the nation, written in unassuming style and calling similar intimate messages which Queen Victoria was in the habit of sending to her subjects.

King George has addressed messages to the navy and army, expressing his thanks for their loyalty and devotion, and his solicitude for the welfare of both services.

A message also has gone from the king to the Indian princes and people, expressing his profound gratitude for their sympathy.

Alexandra's Message to the Nation.

The queen mother Alexandra's message to the nation was as follows:

"From the depth of my poor broken heart I wish to express to the whole nation and our own kind people we love so well my deep-felt thanks for the sympathy which has been so generously and so overwhelmingly sorrow and unexpressed."

"Not alone have I lost everything in him, my beloved husband, but the nations too, have suffered an irreparable loss, for his best friend, father and sovereign, has been taken away. May God give us all His divine help to bear this heavy burden."

"Give me a thought in your prayers, for I am thinking of you all in all that I have to go through. Let me take this opportunity of expressing my thanks for the sympathy which has been so generously and so overwhelmingly sorrow and unexpressed."

"I have received from all classes, high and low, tokens of sympathy, and I am deeply grateful for them. I am sure that you will all be thinking of me and my poor people in your prayers."

"I can only say that I will follow in his footsteps, and I will do my best to show him the same loyalty and devotion which he showed me."

"I can only say that I will follow in his footsteps, and I will do my best to show him the same loyalty and devotion which he showed me."
